

Joseph Widdison

Velda P. Widdison

Velda Remund Widdison, age 66, of Springville, died Tuesday, June 18, 1991 at Utah Valley Regional Medical Center of complications following surgery.

She was born October 21, 1924 in Daniel, Wasatch County, to Daniel and Florence Ought Widdison.

She married Joseph Widdison April 14, 1942 in Joseph Widdison's home. Their marriage was later solemnized in the Mantle LDS temple. She attended schooling in Wasatch County, graduating from Wasatch High. She had worked for J.C. Penney for seven years and in the school lunch program. She had been employed by Springville City for the last 30 years. 26

She received the Employee Award from the Springville City in 1977. She had served as president of the Utah Municipal Treasurers Association in 1985-86, and other positions in that organization throughout the years. She served on the Certification Committee of the Municipal Treasurers Association of the United States and Canada. In 1988, she received the Certified Municipal Treasurer Award, and received other awards for distinguished service. She was a member of the LDS Church and had taught Primary, Relief Society, Young Women's, and was a visiting teacher. She enjoyed gardening and fishing.

She is survived by her husband, Springville; one son and one daughter, Jack Widdison, Mapleton, Wis.; Bill (Joyce) Winnet, Springville; stepdaughters, Linda Remund Bodie, Duvall, Wash.; and a grandchild, one great-grandchild, five sisters, one brother, Arnelia Bethers, Lloyd Remund, Daniel; Theola Swift, Helen Clark, Jeanette McKendle, Heber; Ariene Sinclair, Rangely, Colorado.

Funeral will be 11 a.m. in the Springville 14th Ward, 451 South Main, Springville. Friends may call at the home, 211 East 200 South, Tuesday, 6 p.m. or Friday, 9:30-10:30 a.m. Burial will be in the Evergreen Cemetery.

N3 6/20 T 6/20